New Jersey Herald
Letter to the Editor

Saturday, June 16, 2018, was a beautiful, sunny day as we began our Stillwater Day festivities with the Little Miss, Little Mr. and Miss Stillwater pageants. Congratulations to Danielle Blide, Miss Stillwater; Mackenzie Reed, Little Miss Stillwater and Zachary Saul, Little Mr. Stillwater. We wish Danielle the best as she attends the Queen of the Fair contest, representing Stillwater Township.

We enjoyed many vendors, lots of games for the children, crafts, inflatables, face painting, Rizzo's Reptiles, and music all day by the DJ. Lots of good food could be found, from hot dogs & hamburgers, sausage and pepper sandwiches to popcorn and ice cream. The whole day ended with a wonderful fireworks display by Garden State Fireworks.

The many Non-Profit Organizations that sat under the tent with their literature are always a big hit. The Recreation Commission was selling the "Stillwater" blankets, once again. You can purchase them at the Town Hall for $45.00.

People don't realize how much time and effort goes into preparing and planning for an event of this kind. There are so many people who work behind the scenes donating their time and efforts to make it successful. On behalf of the Stillwater Recreation Commission, we would like to thank all of our friends and vendors who came out that day and hope that everyone enjoyed their time with us. Special thanks need to go out to the following: our judges for the pageants, Bob and Nancy Wood and Joan Currant (what a tough job they have); Jen Moore from All-Access for the stage; the Sheriff's Dept. for all their help, and for SLAP who come and keep our fields in order; Mayor Lisa Chamblings for her support and opening remarks; and for everyone else who helped in any way possible towards our goal of building a playground at Veteran's Park.

Once again, many thanks and we look forward to seeing you at our next Stillwater Day on June 15, 2019.

Michele Hess, Secretary
Stillwater Recreation Commission
